

Q You then went into your room again?

A Yes, sir.

Q And shut the door?

A Yes, sir.

Q And do you know about what time you went to bed?

A Between half past eight and ten o'clock. That is as near as I can get it.

Q It isn't your habit to look at a watch or clock before you go to bed, is it?

A No, sir.

Q Where was the revolver kept?

A In my secretary locked.

Q That is in your room?

A Yes, sir, and the key always in my pocket.

Q Now, did you hear Mrs. Hall come upstairs to go to bed that evening?

A Not to my recollection.

Q Did you hear her bring up little Frances to put her to bed?

A No, sir.

Q Did you see any of the servants that evening after you went back into your room?

A No, sir; the door of my room is always closed.

Q It is not ordinarily locked is it, Will, just
